

FoBBIZ

Jahresanlass 2020

Blick nach
Zentralamerika
in der Zeit der
Pandemie

Akteure der IZA in Honduras?

Das Beispiel des Projekts ProJoven

Angie Murillo

SDC
Honduras

Iván Rodríguez

Swisscontact
Honduras

FoBBIZ

Annual conference 2020

How is VET changing as a result of the pandemic?

*Experiences and lessons learned from the Covid-19 crisis in Switzerland and internationally

The ProJoven Programme in Honduras

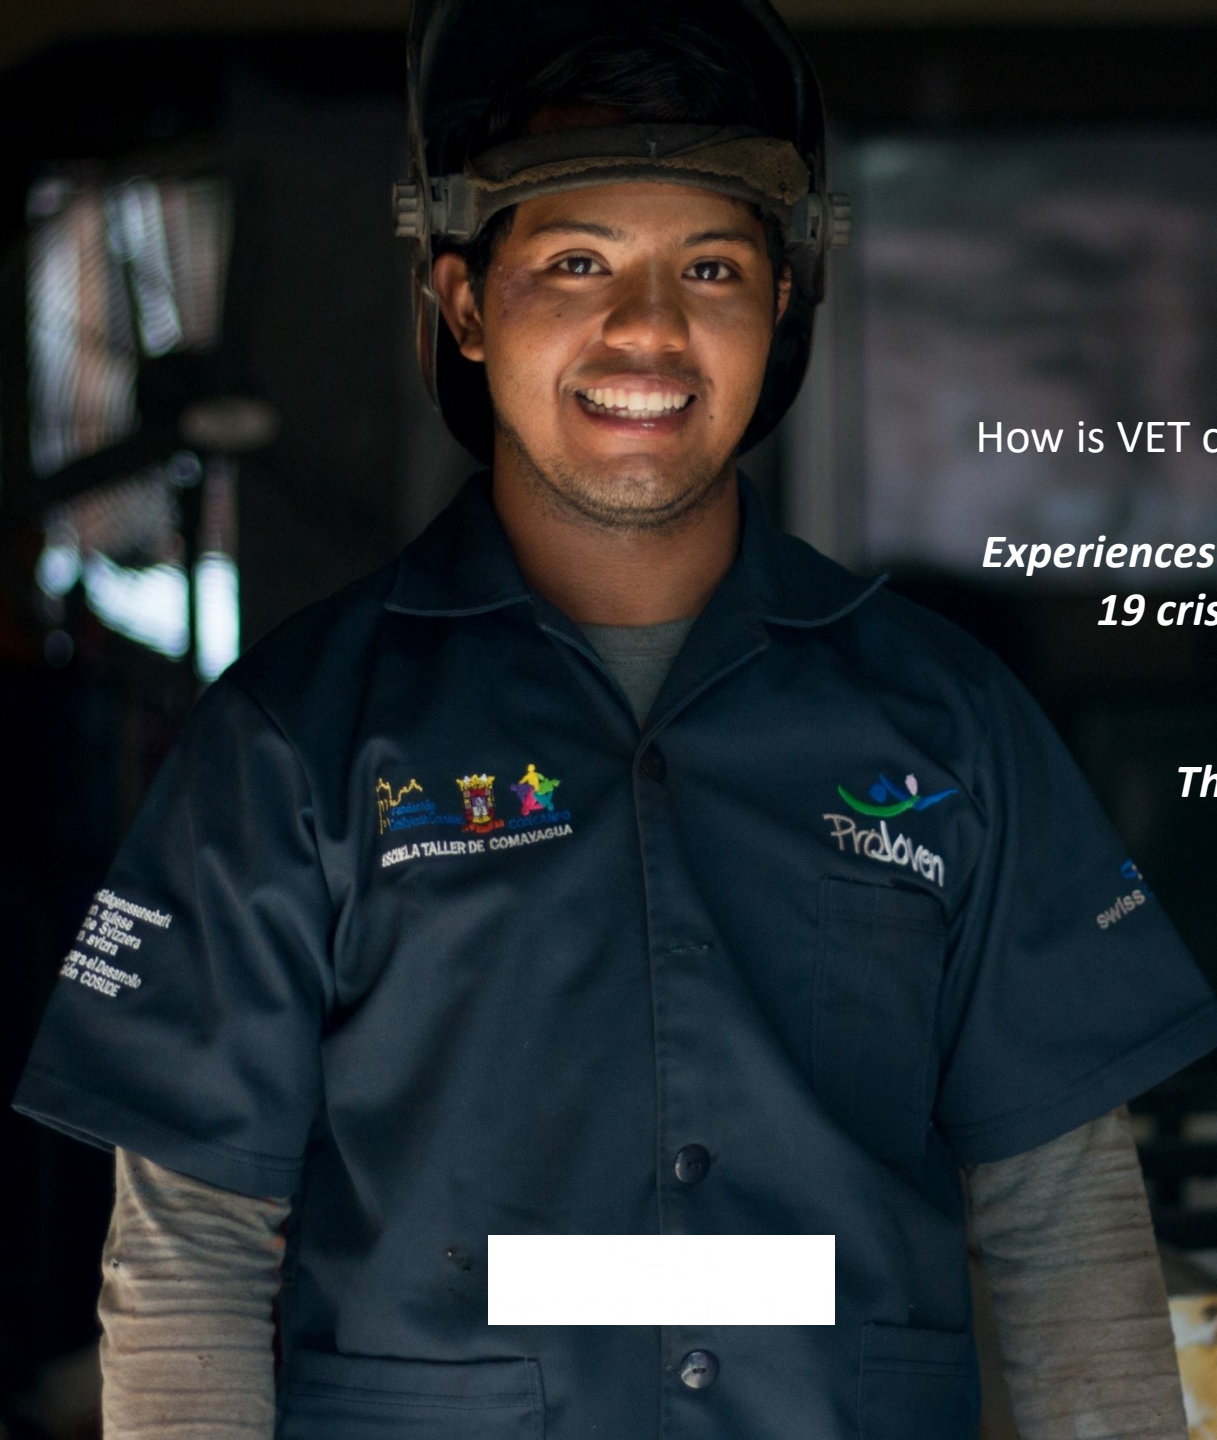

Presented by
Angie Murillo (SDC) &
Iván Rodríguez (Swisscontact)

Thursday, 29th of October 2020, 15:00 – 16:45

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation SDC

- SDC in Honduras:

The Inclusive Economic Development Objectives

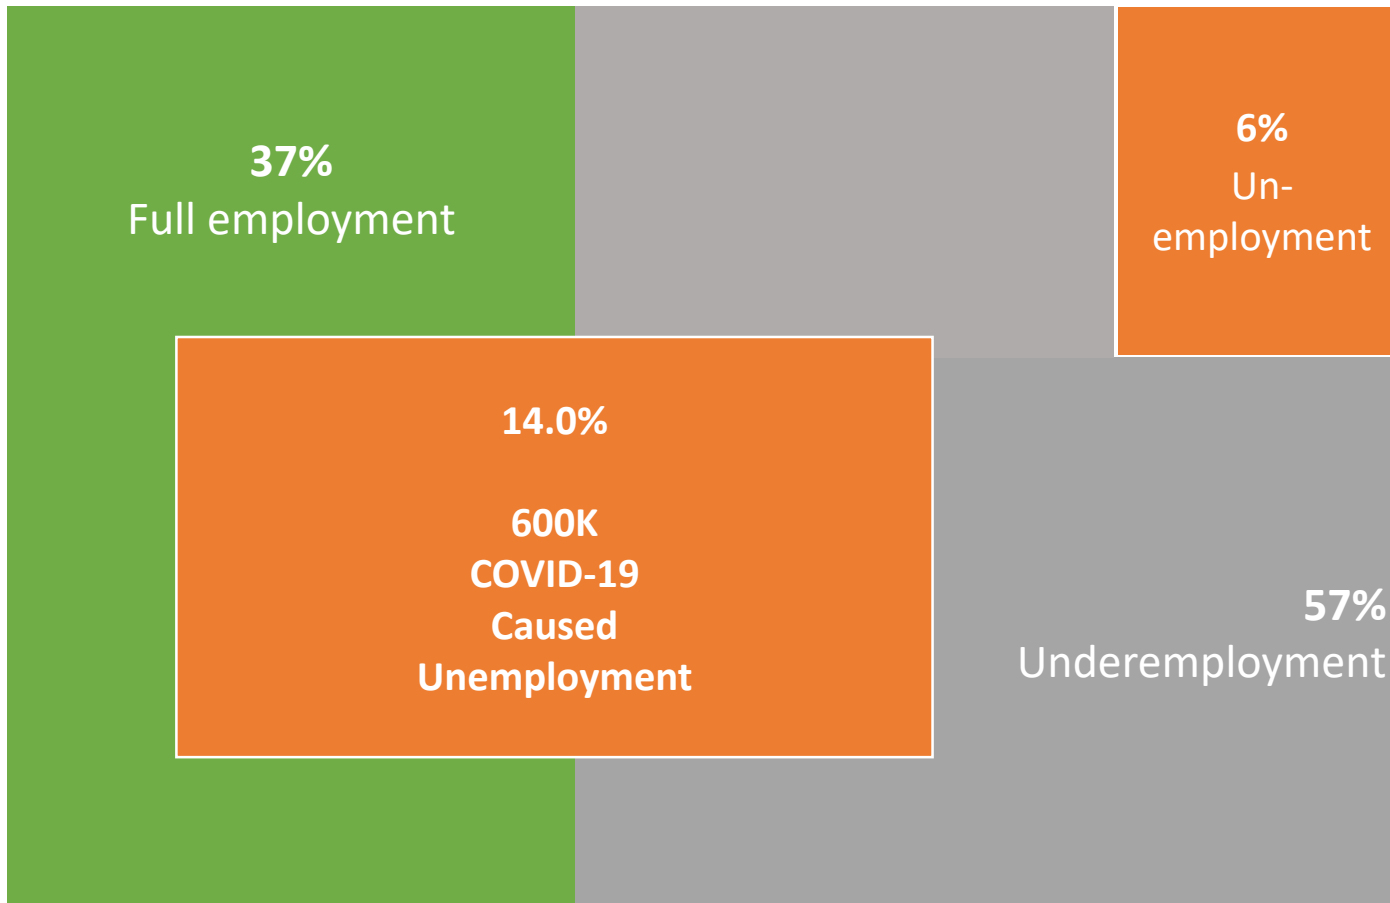

- Strengthening small businesses
- Developing vocational skills for young people

- ProJoven Programme:

Improves the effectiveness and coverage of the TVET system for vulnerable young people from poor urban neighborhoods and rural areas.

Strengthens capacities of public and private institutions.

Honduras labour market 2019

Poverty rate:

65% (42% Extremely poor)

Economically Active Population:

4.2 Mio (38% women)

Youth:

1 Mio un & underemployed
(33% women)

COVID-19 Effects on the Honduran TVET System

- Interruption of training processes
- Psychological effects
- Drastic reduction of labor insertion and internship opportunities
- Exacerbated ICT and gender gaps

ProJoven Adaptive Measures (developed jointly with private sector)

- Speeding up virtualization of TVET
- Adaptation of training environments and curricula on biosecurity protocols
- Emphasis on soft skills, entrepreneurial and digital marketing skills
- New occupations

ProJoven Adaptative Measures (developed jointly with private sector)

- Psychological support for trainees, instructors, and their families
- Community supporting activities
- Working together with other international cooperation agencies

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Agencia Suiza para el Desarrollo
y la Cooperación COSUDE

swisscontact

Muchas Gracias
Suíza!

ProJoven

ProJovenHN

